

LDW

LOSS DAMAGE WAIVER

Better than Insurance:

Even for renters with insurance, the Loss Damage Waiver (LDW) may be a wise choice. When renting a vehicle, you are generally responsible for all loss of and damage to the rented vehicle, regardless of fault, subject to all applicable state and local laws.

LDW is not insurance. It is a waiver by Avis of all or part of your financial responsibilities for:

- All loss of and damage to the rented vehicle — which could be as high as its full replacement value, if the vehicle is “totaled”;
- Loss of use — revenue lost to Avis due to the inability to rent the vehicle while being repaired; and
- Administrative expenses relating to the vehicle.

You can avoid or limit this responsibility by purchasing LDW where available at participating locations, subject to all applicable state and local laws.

Simply stated, when you purchase LDW, Avis will pick up the tab for these costs. Your own insurance company won’t even have to be contacted. Your ability to purchase LDW is, however, subject to all applicable state and local laws. All LDW availability and terms vary by state. For terms that apply to your rental, check the front page notice and paragraphs 7, 8 and 9 of your rental agreement. Additional information may also be contained in brochures, notices or on signs at the rental counter.

Texas law requires us to make certain disclosures to renters in connection with this offer or the sale of a rental car damage waiver. Due to recent changes in this law, your personal automobile policy may or may not provide coverage for your legal liability in connection with the loss of or damage to a rental vehicle or may otherwise exclude or restrict such coverages.

ADDITIONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE

What is it?

Avis has Additional Liability Insurance (ALI) available at participating U.S. locations. ALI is a special optional service offered by Avis when you rent an Avis car. It’s an “Excess Automobile Liability Insurance Policy” that provides additional liability insurance, within specified limits, above the limits provided in the Avis rental agreement. ALI insures you, and any authorized driver as defined in the Avis rental agreement, against claims made by third parties against you, the customer, for bodily injury/death and property damage caused by the use or operation of an Avis rental vehicle as permitted in the Avis rental agreement. ALI is a separate insurance policy issued to Avis by ACE American Insurance Company. It is made available to you as the customer when renting an Avis vehicle if you elect to accept ALI for an additional daily charge as shown on the Avis rental agreement.

What are the coverage limits provided by ALI?

The ALI coverage limits equal the difference between the ALI maximum $1,000,000 combined single limit (or $2,000,000 combined single limit in the following jurisdictions: California, Florida, Hawaii and New York) and the liability protection limits provided under the Avis rental agreement. Note, in all states we only offer $1,000,000 combined single limit on 10, 12, and 15 passenger vans.

When and where does ALI coverage apply?

You and authorized operators are covered while driving your Avis rental vehicle within the United States and Canada, but only if the vehicle is rented and returned in the United States. Coverage does not apply in Mexico.

How does ALI affect the application of your automobile or umbrella insurance policy?

Your personal insurance policy providing coverage on an owned automobile, or other personal policy, may provide additional coverage, and to that extent, ALI may provide a duplication of coverage. Whether, at what point, and to what extent your own policies apply can only be determined by checking the terms of the policies themselves as these terms frequently vary.

How to obtain PAI, PAI-Plus, PEP, ESP, ALI

To accept protection under any of the optional insurance products described in this brochure, you must pay the additional daily charge as shown on the rental agreement for each full or partial rental day by initialing your acceptance of the protection on your Avis rental agreement.

Period of Coverage

Coverage begins on the later of (1) the date the renter signs the rental agreement and pays the required premium or (2) the time the renter picks up the car. Coverage terminates on the earlier of (1) the date the rental period ends or (2) the date the renter violates the rental agreement or converts the rental vehicle.

How does ALI affect the application of your automobile or umbrella insurance policy?

However, the protection afforded by ALI (if ALI is accepted), like the Avis rental agreement limits of protection, is primary to your own policies. This means that before your own policies would apply to pay a claim, the $1,000,000 protection (or $2,000,000 protection in the following jurisdictions: California, Florida, Hawaii and New York) afforded by the combination ALI and the Avis rental agreement limits would have to be exhausted. Note, in all states we only offer $1,000,000 combined single limit on 10,12, and 15 passenger vans.

What exclusions apply to ALI?

All exclusions, terms and conditions are stated in the policy; it is important that you read the policy carefully. The following highlights some of the exclusions that would preclude coverage.

- If you or authorized operators use, or permit the use of, your Avis rental vehicle in a manner that violates the Avis rental agreement.
- If you obtain your Avis rental vehicle by fraud or misrepresentation.
- To the extent permitted by law, bodily injury or property damage to any Insured or authorized drivers or any person who is related to any Insured by blood, marriage or adoption and residing in the same household.
- “Uninsured Motorist” and “Underinsured Motorist” are not provided by the policy except in states where mandated by law up to maximum amount of $100,000 or in such other amount as mandated by state law.
- “No Fault” and other supplemental or optional coverages are not provided by the policy.
- Punitive or exemplary damages to the extent permitted by law.

Are there any restrictions on the purchase of ALI?

In Florida, ALI may not be purchased where the Avis rental agreement is for more than 30 days, coverage may not be provided for more than 30 consecutive days, and if the Avis rental agreement is extended beyond 30 days, the coverage may be extended for one time only, for a period not to exceed 30 days. In New York, ALI may not be purchased where the rental period exceeds 30 consecutive days.

Period of Coverage (continued)

The renter shall be deemed to have converted the rental vehicle whenever the rental vehicle is not returned to the rental agency by the scheduled return date or extended return date. The customer may cancel the insurance at any time and the unearned premium will be returned in accordance with applicable law.

How to report a claim

In the event of a covered incident that could result in a claim, you must complete an accident report and deliver it to the Avis rental location. In order to make a claim or give notice of a claim, send written notice to:

What are the limits of coverage?

The maximum coverage for each covered item during the rental period is $1,000. The maximum coverage for all items in the rental vehicle during the rental period is $3,000 ($2,000 in NY).
